

Suggested Prayer Points for National Day of Repentance

24th February 2021

Let us repent of whatever that has taken the place of God in our lives. Let us pray that the Lord would restore our first love i.e., Him.

Let us repent our disobedience to the Word of God and His commandments. Let us repent of our careless attitude towards God which makes us take His forgiveness for granted. Pray that the Lord would instill a healthy fear of Him in our hearts.

Let us repent of our slackness in engaging with the Word of God. Let us repent of the times when we have not cherished or taken time to read or listen to the Word of God. Pray that the Lord would create in us a hunger and thirst for His Word.

Let us repent of lives which are less prayerful than they ought to be. Pray that the Lord would move us to spend more time with Him in prayer.

Let us repent of our attitudes and prejudices that keep us from realizing true Christian unity. Let us repent of regionalism, tribalism and anything that divides us. Pray that the Lord would lead us towards united reflection and action to the glory of His name.

Let us repent of our lackadaisical attitude towards sharing the good news. Pray that the Lord would instill fervor in our hearts and passion to share the gospel with the people around us.

Let us repent of moral compromise and downfall. Pray that the Lord would empower us to live and pursue holy lives.

Let us repent of sexual sin in the Church and in Christian organizations. Pray against sexual predators and pray that the Lord would bring them to their senses and justice. Pray for the victims that the Lord would restore them and for the Church that the victims would get the necessary support and care.

Let us repent of our indifference to the plight of the marginalized and the ones facing injustice. Pray that the Lord would move us to work to alleviate their sufferings and to raise our voice for the voiceless.

Let us repent of financial corruption in the Church. Pray that the Lord would lead us to accountability and excellence.

Let us repent of our ignorance of the law and sometimes deliberate misuse of the law which brings disrepute to the name of our God. Pray that the Lord would make us more accountable and more careful to observe what is lawful.

Let us repent of power games that we often play in our Churches and in our organizations thus grieving the heart of God in our thirst for power. Pray that the Lord would reshape our priorities and make us humble.

Let us repent of self-glorification or exaggeration of ourselves or the ministry that we engage in to promote ourselves or our Churches / organizations. Pray that the Lord would teach us humility and that we would glorify Him rather than ourselves.

Let us repent of neglecting our duty to speak truth in love in all circumstances, even truth to power. Pray that the Lord would keep us fearless and loving and truthful.

Let us repent of overburdening ourselves with activities and things that feed our own ego rather than keeping our focus and enhancing productivity. Pray that the Lord would teach us to prioritize and to manage our time wisely.

Let us repent for leadership without integrity, for leaders that have fallen and many who continue willfully in sin. Pray that the Lord would speak to the ones who are going astray and restore them. Pray also for the leadership of the Church that they would not compromise on their integrity and thus bring dishonor to God.

Let us repent of nepotism and favoritism in the Church and in our organizations. Pray that the Lord would bring the right people in the right place and that we would obey Him. Let us repent of the sin of diluting the Word of God for gain or popularity. Pray that we may learn how to handle the Word with maturity and with the fear of God.

Let us repent when we have not prayed for our leaders – both in the Church and in our nation. Pray that the Lord would move us to always remember our leaders in our prayers.
